

CONSUMER ATTORNEYS
OF CALIFORNIA

President Christine D. Spagnoli	President-Elect Christopher B. Dolan	First Vice President John A. Montevideo	Second Vice President John M. Feder	Third Vice President Brian S. Kabateck	Fourth Vice President Todd M. Schneider	Interim CEO Nancy Drabble
------------------------------------	---	--	--	---	--	------------------------------

A new hire in CAOC's press shop

For Immediate Release
September 2, 2009

Consumer Attorneys of California has hired J.G. Preston, a broadcast news veteran with 30 years experience, as press secretary.

Most recently, Preston was a reporter at Capitol Television News Service and was Sacramento news bureau chief for Metro Networks.

"We are thrilled to have a journalist of J.G.'s stature and experience join us," said Nancy Drabble, Interim CEO of Consumer Attorneys of California. Preston will work with CAOC communications director Dan Morain.

Before moving to Sacramento, Preston spent 20 years working as an on-air personality for public television in Minneapolis-Saint Paul. He also worked for radio stations KFAN and WCCO in Minnesota, and was a host and reporter for Minnesota Public Radio.

In addition to his extensive public and commercial broadcast experience, Preston worked in public relations, including a stint as media relations director for Canterbury Downs, the horse track in Minneapolis.

Preston can be reached at:
916-442-6902, ex 106
916-600-9692
jgpreston@caoc.org

Founded in 1962, the Consumer Attorneys of California's mission to keep courts open to everyone, not merely the wealthy. Consumer attorneys have led efforts to bring the tobacco industry to heel, make cars safer, protect individual privacy, defend wage-earners against bosses who would exploit them, and help working people whose life savings have been ravaged by unscrupulous financiers.

###